Dear Mr Robb:

I am in receipt of your letter of March 5th. I put off answering it until now, because I had just written Mr Reilly, and I was afraid there might be some confusion. In my letter to Mr Reilly I had changed the order to 17 jackets. I also asked him to just eliminate the small sized ones. Following are the sizes I would like to have the jackets made. Since writing last time we have been negotiating with an old ex Eagle who requires a large garment. As a result I want to order the jackets in Navy blue, with Gray trim wherever possible. In view of the fact we have to have tan horsehide sleeves I wonder if tan trim would not look better. I will leave that to your judgement.

The sizes will be as follows

1	size	50
6	"	46
6	"	44
4	"	42

About the caps, I am sending them to Philadelphia, att. Mr Campuzano, to have the "E" put on.

We are leaving for training April 8th, and will train in Richmond Va, staying at Virginia Union University. If you will not get the things to us before we leave for camp, will you please send them directly to camp.

Very Truly Yours
